RE: SoFi Securities LLC (Respondent)
Member Firm
CRD No. 151717

Pursuant to FINRA Rule 9216, Respondent SoFi Securities LLC submits this Letter of Acceptance, Waiver, and Consent (AWC) for the purpose of proposing a settlement of the alleged rule violations described below. This AWC is submitted on the condition that, if accepted, FINRA will not bring any future actions against Respondent alleging violations based on the same factual findings described in this AWC.

I.

ACCEPTANCE AND CONSENT

- A. Respondent accepts and consents to the following findings by FINRA without admitting or denying them:

BACKGROUND

SoFi Securities LLC (SoFi), which became a FINRA member in 2011, provides commission-free, self-directed trading to retail investors through its mobile application and website. Headquartered in San Francisco, California, the firm has six branch offices and approximately 100 registered representatives.¹

OVERVIEW

From January 2019 through March 2023, SoFi failed to establish, maintain, and enforce a reasonably designed supervisory system, including written supervisory procedures (WSPs), for its fully paid securities lending business. Therefore, the firm violated FINRA Rules 3110 and 2010.

During the same period, the firm distributed documents to more than two million retail investors containing misrepresentations about the compensation that those investors would receive for participating in fully paid securities lending. By making these misleading statements to customers, SoFi violated FINRA Rule 2010. The misstatements also violated the content standards of FINRA's advertising rule; therefore, the firm also violated FINRA Rules 2210(d) and 2010.

FACTS AND VIOLATIVE CONDUCT

This matter originated from a FINRA examination of firms offering fully paid securities lending to retail customers.

1. Fully paid securities lending in general

Fully paid securities lending is a practice through which a clearing firm borrows a customer's fully paid or excess margin securities and lends them to a third party in exchange for a daily borrowing fee. A clearing firm must obtain customer consent before borrowing or lending that customer's securities. Fully paid lending programs are operated by clearing firms, which custody customer securities.²

If a customer is enrolled in a fully paid securities lending program, the clearing firm determines which securities to borrow, when, and on what terms. When the clearing firm identifies a security it wants to borrow in an enrolled customer's account, the clearing firm removes the security from the customer's account and deposits collateral (cash or cash equivalents) with a value equal to or greater than the value of the security in a bank account managed by a trustee for the benefit of the enrolled customer. The clearing firm then lends the security to a third party and collects a daily borrowing fee.³ The borrow rate is variable and generally reflects the market for the borrowed security. For example, a security for which there is high demand and limited supply typically will garner a higher interest rate than a security which is more liquid or for which there is limited demand.

Should a customer wish to sell borrowed securities, the clearing firm will recall them from the third-party borrower (or otherwise obtain shares to make delivery on the customer's sale). When a customer's shares are borrowed over a dividend payment date, the customer receives a cash payment in lieu of the dividend. Payments in lieu of dividends are taxed as regular income, like nonqualified dividends. Payments in lieu of dividends may be taxed at a higher rate than qualified dividends. Customers who lend their shares out also lose, for the duration of the securities loan, both SIPC protection and voting rights (because voting rights for borrowed shares transfer to the third party borrowing those shares).

2. SoFi's fully paid securities lending business

Since at least January 2019, SoFi has participated in a fully paid securities lending program (FPLP) offered by its clearing firm. In its agreement with its clearing firm, SoFi: agreed to determine whether its customers could participate in the FPLP; set the criteria for determining which customers could participate in the FPLP; and determine what compensation, if any, would be paid to customers when their fully paid or excess margin securities were borrowed.

² SoFi Does not custody customer securities and does not itself borrow or lend those securities.

³ The third-party borrowing firm also posts collateral with the clearing firm, keeping the clearing firm net capital neutral.

At account opening, SoFi provided to its customers a Master Securities Lending Agreement (MSLA), which is a contract between the customer and the clearing firm that gives the clearing firm the right to borrow the customer's fully paid and excess margin securities. SoFi also provided to its customers at account opening a disclosure document describing the features and risks of the FPLP. Both the MSLA and disclosure document were drafted by SoFi's clearing firm.

From January 2019 through March 2023, SoFi required that its retail customers, as a condition of opening an account at the firm, consent to the MSLA. Those customers could then later opt-out of the FPLP at any time.

3. SoFi failed to establish, maintain, and enforce a reasonably designed supervisory system or WSPs for fully paid securities lending FINRA Rule 3110(a) requires each member firm to establish and maintain a system to supervise the activities of each associated person that is reasonably designed to achieve compliance with applicable securities laws and regulations, and with applicable FINRA rules. FINRA Rule 3110(b) requires member firms to establish, maintain, and enforce written procedures to supervise the types of business in which it engages and the activities of its associated persons that are reasonably designed to achieve compliance with applicable securities laws and regulations, and with applicable FINRA rules. A violation of FINRA Rule 3110 also is a violation of FINRA Rule 2010, which requires member firms to observe high standards of commercial honor and just and equitable principles of trade in the conduct of their business.

SoFi failed to establish and maintain a reasonably designed supervisory system, including WSPs, for its fully paid securities lending business. Although SoFi agreed to determine which of its customers could participate in the FPLP, the firm did not take reasonable steps to make appropriateness determinations prior to enrolling customers in the FPLP. Instead, all new customers were enrolled in the FPLP at account opening.

From January 2019 through March 2023, more than two million customers were automatically enrolled in the FPLP as part of the account opening process. SoFi received over $8 million in revenue (its share of the daily borrowing fees) from its clearing firm for the lending of its customers' shares. However, none of that revenue was paid to SoFi's customers. Customers lost, for the duration of the securities loan, both SIPC protection and voting rights. Moreover, some of the customers who participated in the FPLP received cash payments in lieu of dividends and thus were potentially subject to adverse tax consequences.

Since March 2023, SoFi customers enrolled in the FPLP have received a portion of the borrowing fees generated through the lending of their fully paid and excess margin shares. SoFi also has developed and implemented WSPs concerning fully paid securities lending.

By failing to establish, maintain, and enforce a reasonably designed supervisory system, including WSPs, for fully paid securities lending, SoFi violated FINRA Rules 3110 and 2010.

4. SoFi distributed documents to customers that contained misrepresentations regarding the compensation that customers would receive for participating in the FPLP

Making a misrepresentation or omission of a material fact to customers violates FINRA Rule 2010, as doing so is inconsistent with just and equitable principles of trade.

FINRA Rule 2210 includes certain content standards that apply to all member communications, including “retail communications,” which are defined as “any written (including electronic) communication that is distributed or made available to more than 25 retail investors within any 30 calendar-day period.” FINRA Rule 2210(d)(1)(B) requires that members not make any false, exaggerated, unwarranted, promissory or misleading statement or claim in any communication. The rule further states that no member may publish, circulate or distribute any communication that the member knows or has reason to know contains any untrue statement of a material fact or is otherwise false or misleading. A violation of FINRA Rule 2210 also is a violation of FINRA Rule 2010.

SoFi provided the MSLA and the FPLP disclosure document to customers at account opening. These documents, which were created and provided to SoFi by its clearing firm, contained misrepresentations regarding the compensation that SoFi customers would receive from participating in the FPLP. In particular, the FPLP disclosure document stated that customers would “receive a loan fee, which will be credited daily, and generally represents a certain percentage of the net loan fee received by [the clearing firm] for relending [the customer’s] shares.” The FPLP disclosure document further stated to customers that the clearing firm “will pay you a loan fee for the shares that it borrows from you.” These statements were false. During the relevant period, neither the clearing firm nor SoFi paid customers any money for lending their shares in connection with the FPLP. Further, the MSLA stated that loan fees would be split between the clearing firm and SoFi, but also stated that customers who enrolled in the FPLP would be compensated via reduced management fees. That statement was misleading because SoFi did not charge management fees to any customer, regardless of whether they opted out of the FPLP.

Therefore, SoFi violated FINRA Rule 2210(d)(1)(B) and Rule 2010, both independently and by virtue of violating Rule 2210(d)(1)(B).

B. Respondent also consents to the imposition of the following sanctions:

- a censure;
- a $500,000 fine; and

- restitution of $198,282.39 plus interest as described below.⁴

Respondent agrees to pay the monetary sanctions upon notice that this AWC has been accepted and that such payment is due and payable. Respondent has submitted an Election of Payment form showing the method by which it proposes to pay the fine imposed.

Restitution is ordered to be paid to the customers listed on Attachment A to this AWC (Eligible Customers) in the total amount of $198,282.39, plus interest at the rate set forth in Section 6621(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. § 6621(a)(2), from April 1, 2023 until the date this AWC is accepted by the National Adjudicatory Council (NAC).

A registered principal on behalf of Respondent shall submit satisfactory proof of payment of restitution and interest (separately specifying the date and amount of each paid to each Eligible Customer) or of reasonable and documented efforts undertaken to effect restitution. Such proof shall be submitted by email to EnforcementNotice@FINRA.org from a work-related account of the registered principal of Respondent. The email must identify Respondent and the case number and include a copy of the check, money order, or other method of payment. This proof shall be provided by email to EnforcementNotice@FINRA.org no later than 120 days after the date of the notice of acceptance of the AWC.

The restitution amount plus interest to be paid to each Eligible Customer shall be treated by the Respondent as the Eligible Customer's property for purposes of state escheatment, unclaimed property, abandoned property, and similar laws. If after reasonable and documented efforts undertaken to effect restitution Respondent is unable to pay all Eligible Customers within 120 days after the date of the notice of acceptance of the AWC, Respondent shall submit to FINRA in the manner described above a list of the unpaid Eligible Customers and a description of Respondent's plan, not unacceptable to FINRA, to comply with the applicable escheatment, unclaimed property, abandoned property, or similar laws for each such Eligible Customer.

Respondent specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim an inability to pay, now or at any time after the execution of this AWC, the monetary sanctions imposed in this matter.

The imposition of a restitution order or any other monetary sanctions in this AWC, and the timing of such ordered payments, does not preclude customers from pursuing their own actions to obtain restitution or other remedies.

Restitution payments to customers shall be preceded or accompanied by a letter, not unacceptable to FINRA, describing the reason for the payment and the fact that the payment is being made pursuant to a settlement with FINRA and as a term of this AWC.

The sanctions imposed in this AWC shall be effective on a date set by FINRA.

II.

WAIVER OF PROCEDURAL RIGHTS

Respondent specifically and voluntarily waives the following rights granted under FINRA's Code of Procedure:

- A. To have a complaint issued specifying the allegations against it;
- B. To be notified of the complaint and have the opportunity to answer the allegations in writing;
- C. To defend against the allegations in a disciplinary hearing before a hearing panel, to have a written record of the hearing made, and to have a written decision issued; and
- D. To appeal any such decision to the NAC and then to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and a U.S. Court of Appeals.

Further, Respondent specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim bias or prejudgment of the Chief Legal Officer, the NAC, or any member of the NAC, in connection with such person's or body's participation in discussions regarding the terms and conditions of this AWC, or other consideration of this AWC, including its acceptance or rejection.

Respondent further specifically and voluntarily waives any right to claim that a person violated the ex parte prohibitions of FINRA Rule 9143 or the separation of functions prohibitions of FINRA Rule 9144, in connection with such person's or body's participation in discussions regarding the terms and conditions of this AWC, or other consideration of this AWC, including its acceptance or rejection.

III.

OTHER MATTERS

Respondent understands that:

- A. Submission of this AWC is voluntary and will not resolve this matter unless and until it has been reviewed and accepted by the NAC, a Review Subcommittee of the NAC, or the Office of Disciplinary Affairs (ODA), pursuant to FINRA Rule 9216;
- B. If this AWC is not accepted, its submission will not be used as evidence to prove any of the allegations against Respondent; and

C. If accepted:

1. this AWC will become part of Respondent's permanent disciplinary record and may be considered in any future action brought by FINRA or any other regulator against Respondent;
2. this AWC will be made available through FINRA's public disclosure program in accordance with FINRA Rule 8313;
3. FINRA may make a public announcement concerning this agreement and its subject matter in accordance with FINRA Rule 8313; and
4. Respondent may not take any action or make or permit to be made any public statement, including in regulatory filings or otherwise, denying, directly or indirectly, any finding in this AWC or create the impression that the AWC is without factual basis. Respondent may not take any position in any proceeding brought by or on behalf of FINRA, or to which FINRA is a party, that is inconsistent with any part of this AWC. Nothing in this provision affects Respondent's right to take legal or factual positions in litigation or other legal proceedings in which FINRA is not a party. Nothing in this provision affects Respondent's testimonial obligations in any litigation or other legal proceedings.

D. Respondent may attach a corrective action statement to this AWC that is a statement of demonstrable corrective steps taken to prevent future misconduct. Respondent understands that it may not deny the charges or make any statement that is inconsistent with the AWC in this statement. This statement does not constitute factual or legal findings by FINRA, nor does it reflect the views of FINRA.

The undersigned, on behalf of Respondent, certifies that a person duly authorized to act on Respondent's behalf has read and understands all of the provisions of this AWC and has been given a full opportunity to ask questions about it; that Respondent has agreed to the AWC's provisions voluntarily; and that no offer, threat, inducement, or promise of any kind, other than the terms set forth in this AWC and the prospect of avoiding the issuance of a complaint, has been made to induce Respondent to submit this AWC.
